Musical Setting for BABY PEGGY

in

"THE FAMILY SECRET"

Baby Peggy's Third Feature Picture

A Universal Jewel Production

BABY PEGGY's feature pictures are an event in the photoplay world. For that reason very careful musical settings have been devised for "The Family Secret" and all other "Baby Peggy Pictures." Music of the highest and most fitting character has been chosen. As the theme, a new piece of music was written and composed called "Baby Peggy Waltz." It has a lilt and a charm as individual as Baby Peggy's own delightful personality. In view of the care exercised in the selection of this music you are urged to make as few changes as possible in the numbers, all of which are easily procurable.

Your attention is also called to the fact that the "Baby Peggy Waltz" will be used not only as the theme of "The Family Secret," but for all of the other Universal-Jewels in which Baby Peggy appears. For that reason, this music in particular will come in very handy for your permanent library. The "Baby Peggy Waltz" is published in sheet music form, as well as in full orchestrated form. It will also soon be on the music rolls and phonograph records. It may be obtained direct from Belwin, Inc., 701 Seventh Avenue, New York City, or any local music dealer.

A novel prologue to "The Family Secret" might be arranged for your theatre if you have a small child who is able to sing this number, come out dressed as Baby Peggy prior to the showing of the picture.

All numbers on this cue sheet can be obtained through Belwin, Inc., 701 Seventh Ave., New York, N. Y., or your local music dealer.
