for

"THE LAST WARNING"

LAURA LA PLANTE

Compiled by James C. Bradford

A UNIVERSAL PRODUCTION

THE purpose of this GREATER THEMATIC MUSIC CUE SHEET is to make it possible for a more detailed and accurate rendition of the suggested music, to establish a more definite locale of the production, a more perfect sequence of modulations from one selection to another, a more careful working out of the dynamics and effects, and in fact to take the place of a complete music score.

By carefully adhering to the suggestions offered in this cue sheet together with the type, style and character of the music selected for the various scenes, action and characters, a most effective and satisfactory performance must result from any theatre combination of musicians, as extra care was taken to select only such arrangements that can be properly rendered with any size orchestra, or even with Organ or Piano alone.

This is a mystery play and ominous, sinister, mysterious and dramatic music must be adhered to throughout.

SYNOPSIS OF STORY: The Woodford Theatre has been dark for five years ever since the murder of Woodford, the star and lessee of the theatre who was killed during a performance. The members of the company, rushing for aid, return to find the body gone. Five years later, producer McHugh leases it from Robert and Josiah Bunce. With Quaille, the former director back in his old position, McHugh decides to stage "The Snare"—the play in which Woodford had died. Almost the entire personnel of the original company is lured back through one pretext or another. Carleton is engaged for Woodford's role with Quaille, in love with Doris, the leading woman, as understudy. The ghost of Woodford threatens the troupe, telling them no one shall ever play the role he created and live. Mike, a scary electrician, often sees the spirit of Woodford. During rehearsals the company is terror-stricken as many things happen, such as sluggings, fainting spells, near accidents, locked doors and what not. At the final rehearsal the voice of Woodford warns the players not to go on. Carleton is belligerent. A few moments later he is missing. His body is found in a dressing room and then disappears just as had Woodford's remains.

The opening performance starts. The theatre is crowded. Quaille, playing the leading role, narrowly escapes death during the performance. The theatre is in an uproar. The police break in—the various members of the company stand accused of the crime, and in a thrilling denouement it is disclosed that the Bunces in their desire to protect their lease on the theatre have perpetrated the crimes. Quaille takes Doris in his arms.

The important themes are described as follows:

McHUGH THEME: (Cues 18, 26—7, 9—optional) A Rhythmic Misterioso for the action of the energetic police officer in the pursuit of his duty. "LES PERSES" (Domergue).

LOVE THEME: (Cues 21, 24, 47) A sweet love Ballad to follow the love scenes of the picture and the heart interest of the play. "LOVE SONG" (Wright).

SINISTER THEME: (Cues 23, 28, 36, 40, 42) A dramatic forceful cruel Maestoso to cover the mystery of the theatre and the warning sent by the mysterious occupant. "LE SEIGNEUR DE KERMOR" (Gabriel Marie).

BROADWAY THEME: (Cue 3-48 optional) A popular tune associated with the bright lights and New York atmosphere. "MY NEW YORK" (Berlin).
